COMPREHENSIVE GOALS

1. Strengthen the capacity for staff and Board members to confidently adapt to a changing behavioral health landscape.  INTERNAL GOALS TO ENHANCE ORGANIZATION
  - A. Developing, carrying out and reporting progress on a shared strategic plan;
  - B. Improving and simplifying Board policies and procedures, procurement and contracting processes;
  - C. Using the Regional Alliance Board collaboration as a mechanism to stretch capacity beyond our own county boundaries and local expertise; and
  - D. Develop a consistent, outcome-focused method for establishing priorities for funding.

2. Continue to strengthen capacity for a full continuum of behavioral health services continuum across the life span.  EXTERNAL GOALS IN RELATION TO SERVICE PROVIDERS
  - A. Provide support to current provider agency (CCI) to ensure service delivery across the system of care throughout the acquisition process to the new provider agency (TCN);
  - B. Ensure quarterly agency review process addresses capacity needs in each service area; and
  - C. Move toward value-based contracting for positive client outcomes, quality and service satisfaction.

3. Evaluate opportunities for collaboration with other community partners serving shared populations.
COLLABORATIVE GOALS WITH SYSTEM PARTNERS

SFY 2019 Priority focus areas include:

  - A. Medical providers (Primary healthcare providers and public health system)
  - B. Criminal justice systems
  - C. Child Welfare systems
  - D. Employers/Business community

4. Promote Healthy Communities  INTERNAL GOALS RELATED TO USE OF RESOURCES
  - A. Invest staff time and resources to continue developing local Coalitions toward collective impact;
  - B. Design goals and priorities based on the collaborative Community Needs Assessment process; and
  - C. Strengthen the focus and investment in behavioral health promotion, prevention, early identification and recovery supports.
